Treasures are Waiting

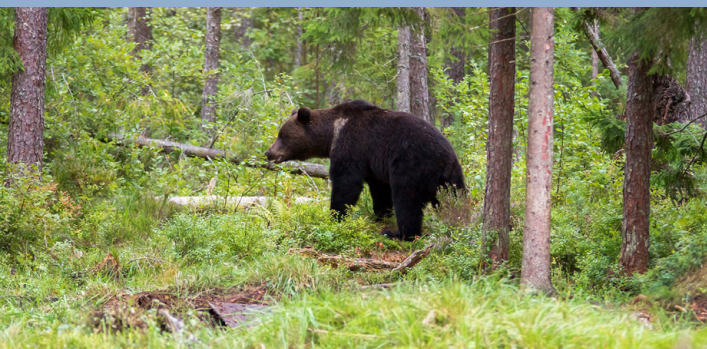

This northern European country offers plenty of exciting options for every type of traveler.

Its compact size makes it easy to enjoy both city and nature experiences for long or short vacations.

Start with the cultural and gastronomic delights of the vibrant capital Tallinn.

From there, head into the Alutaguse wilderness to spot bears and other fascinating wildlife. Complete your trip with a visit to Lahemaa National Park for scenic nature hikes and biking along the pine tree-dotted coastline.
